Ms. Vu,

The Statutory Compliance and Research Division has initiated searches of the records of Passport Services. This search is continuing. Unfortunately, we cannot give a definitive timeframe for the processing of your request. The timeframe depends on a variety of factors: where the records are kept; how much material must be reviewed; the sensitivity of the material; any coordination with other offices, bureaus, posts, agencies, and governments; and how many requests were received before your request. We received over 8,000 requests before yours this year and we are still processing cases from previous years. We are required to process cases in a first-in, first-out order within the track that the case is assigned. For more details about our processing times please visit our website at www.foia.state.gov and review our annual report.

Thank you,

Tom
